the raging Sirius; "Sweltered and suffering reader, may we inform you that we have had a heated term-a regular grease-reducing era, a series of kerosene days, wherein the calefaction has been tremendous? At early morn there has been a most painful calidity; at high noon the while at usually balmy evening the incalescent heetic flush of wildfire day has lingered on the trames of the population. Oh, how we all in cash; the residue in three equal payments at frames of the population. Oh, how we all have sweltered, and simmered, and seethed, and stewed, and steamed, and smoked, and smouldered, and scalded, since the 1st of July, beneath the mighty flames of 'The God of day.' How simoon-ish, Sirocco-like, has been old ey shall have been paid; the cash payment to Sol's great torrid bonfire. OFFICES—Gainesville Depot, Manassas Gap Railroad, and Buckland, Prince William county, Va. The subscribers having associated thomselves for the purpose of buying and selling lands in

Fauquier, Prince William and adjoining counties, are prepared to offer to purchasers a number of farms, containing from 200 to 1000 acros, at prices ranging from $5 to $40 per acre— Parties desiring to locate in this State, will do well to examine the lands we offer before purchasing elsewhere.

Will attend the depot at Gainesville, and at Buckland daily, and be prepared to take care of and show parties the property we offer.

This immediate vicinity offers great inducements in the way of rail and turnpike roads to the markets of Alexandria, Georgetown and Washington, distant 35 to 40 miles, and from 5 to 8 miles from Warrenton, on the Orange and Alexandria R. R., the county seat of Fauquier. No section of the State possesses greater advantages for grazing, fruit culture and farming, its nearness to market enabling producers to place in the above market daily the surplus products of fruits, vegetables, &c. Flour and grists mills are numerous. At Buckland, 3 miles from Gainesville, a large woollen factory is in successful operation, affording a home market for wool and other products. The water and health of this section is We will be glad to furnish information to all

WARM SPRINGS, BATH COUNTY, VA. CHANGE OF PROPRIETORS.

Having recently assumed the proprietorship of this old and fashionable watering place, and completed our arrangements for the entertainment of visitors, we now solicit the patronage of the public. Every effort has been made to restore to this establishment its former reputation. The remedial properties of the waters have been sufficiently attested in the numbers who have been relieved of Rheumatic, Gouty and other affections, while the luxury of the Baths, when once enjoyed, can never be forgotten. Persons desirous to have full information concerning the character of the waters may consult our circular, which will be sent to them, on application, free of postage.

We pledge ourselves that our table shall not be inferior to any kept either in city or country. The name of our manager is sufficient to insure good living.

The route to the Warm Springs is by Richmond and Staunton to Millboro' depot, on the Virgina Central railroad, where a line of stages is of record in said county. A plat, showing to reach the Springs the same day after leaving said lots, will be exhibited at the sale. Richmond, Lynchburg, Washington, or Balti-RATES OF BOARD: Per day, $2.50; per week,
